A FATAL AFFRAY, -Captain Nat Kinney, the famous chief and founder of the Bald Knobbers' organization, was shot and instantly killed at Ozark, Mo., yesterday by Bill Miles, an anti-Bald Knobber. Miles escaped. The men have been at daggers points for two years past, the fend dating from the time when Kinney was chief of the outlaw band and ruled Christian county with a rod of iron. The men met at Ozark, quarreled, and were separated. Later the quarrel was renewed, and both men drew their weapons and tired simultaneously their weapons and fired simultaneously Kinney was shot through the head, dying instantly. Miles escaped unburt. Kinney had a large following in the county, and more bloodshed is looked for.

NEW YORK'S MURDER MYSTERY -The man who was so mysteriously murdered Monday afternoon in Park Row, New York, was identified yesterday at the morgue by two Italians as a countryman named Ferdinand Salzarini, forty-four years old, who has been in this country seventeen years. The capital stock of this company is $625,000, divided into 625,000 shares of $1 each.

The company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia, and the stock is non-assessable, and carries with it no personal liability to the holder.

THE GOLD MINING COMPANY (location, Music Mountains, A. T.,) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for.

A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days.

The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR.

There is no better stock on the market for a permanent investment. For full information in regard to this Mine apply to the
